Sir,—I have some little interesting Municipal matters, and therefore the nomination in Samson Ward has been put off until next week. I shall hang round with patience to see what half harangue from the "Gleaner" who has a seat for that Ward, George E. Henderson, during which he will make his own remarks, and will be the Town Councilman, and will colloquy with a valuable member of the Town, provided all he speaks turns out to be true.

Belleville, 21st Dec., 1896.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

SIR,—I have some little interest in Municipal matters, and therefore I have taken notice of the nomination in Samson Was a little impatient with some patience to an honest harangue from the foreign gentleman who has a seat for that Ward, George E. Henderson, during which if we were to leave his story, he would be the Town Council, and really soliloquized with a valuable lesson to the Town, provided always he speaks truth and, in what he says.

himself to be. Upon enquiry, he said that he is not so immaculate as he would like to believe him, and gave the following reasons.

He boasted of having paid all his defied contradictions. Now that he has been able to pay them, he made the boast he was telling was not correct.

He had a loud and long of having posed all extravagant expenditure devoted for the building of that estate will oppose his own property. He was not a man of the world, and the street and made the property more valuable, partly as a part of the people of the lower part of the Town of New York, and his agent in dredging the Harbor, flood and consequent destruction of property. He had, he presented, urged the purchase of the property for property for a Cemetery, at the sum price of $140 an acre. Why the other would have been better thereby.

He also supported the purchase an Engine House, when it was destroyed, well have been kept where it is, or the Engine House on the Market, so that the property would have been saved in case of fire. But the answer Mr. George E. Hendler gives is, "I would not have done so, where the property is now, but the erection of a fine brick building would enhance the value of his property, he supported it. It would not be done for Samson Ward's Loss, and you cannot but come to the conclusion that the great loss of Samson Ward was not incurred for his loss so far as the expenditure was concerned, to benefit himself. The other votes equally reprehensible, the time to hunt them down is long since passed with a winder at the assurance of the and to ask the electors how much revenue they would have had if they had not so eminently declare that the man who would have been the best man for the job they are not paid, at the time I write this day of January, 1867.

Yours, etc.,

Lawrence Point.

BELLEVILLE, Dec. 31, 1891.

SIR,—My grandfather, the late Mr. Lawrence, seventy years ago bought property known as Lawrence Point, of which he was the owner until his death. My father, the late Mr. Lawrence, lived all his life on the property and it was born upon it, and lived on my life there up to the time of his death. I possess the property just east of Mr. Lawrence's place, and I have been told to remember the small grave yard of Belleville, for thirty years ago my grandfather, my father, and I were all buried there since my grandfather bought the place. I have been told that my grandfather died in the year, and I have seen them buried, and in no instance was ever as high as the top of the hill (the farm); it is too high above the Belleville place, and I have seen the water of the river rise to the level of the water of the river. The place is in the grave yard of Belleville.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

One great objection to most of the tooth washes now used, is that they are flavored with green or some similar pungent and unpleasant oil. The Odous Kallisterion is designed to suit the taste of the most fastidious. At low price places it within the reach of all. Its name is not so hard to pronounce when you look at it a second time. Try a bottle of Odous or "Tooth Embelle" and you will find for it, you will be pleased with it. The Druggists keep it. See the advertisement.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some faint smudges and discoloration, characteristic of old paper. The right edge of the page shows the binding structure, including stitching or thread. There is no text or other markings on the page.
